

Institutional Economics				 universität bonn
Module Number 332123018	Workload 225 h	Credits 7,5 CP	Duration 1 Term	Cycle yearly; summer term
Responsible Faculty Member	Prof. Dr. Urs Schweizer
Institute	Department of Economics
Study Program	Title			Character	Study Term
	Master of Science Economics			Advanced Module	2nd
Learning Outcomes	The Students learn to detect incentives as they arise from legal and other institutions, to describe strategic interaction within institutions (positive analysis) and to evaluate institutions from the economic viewpoint (normative analysis).
Key Skills
Learning Content	In this course, the methods of applied game theory are adopted to the economic analysis of institutions. Particular emphasis is put on those institutions that are of utmost importance as far as coordinating, monitoring and governing economic activities are concerned.
Prerequisites for attending	Basic Module Microeconomics
Course Type	lecture, seminar, etc.			Contact time	Workload [h]
	lecture and tutorial			4 hrs per week	(c) 60 (s) 165
Examination(s)	Type of Examination			Grades
	written or oral exam			yes
Special Course Achievements
Other

(c) contact time per term / (s) self study per term

January 2012