

Mechanism Design and Contract Theory				 universität bonn
Module Number 332121007	Workload 225 h	Credits 7,5 CP	Duration 1 Term	Cycle yearly; summer term
Responsible Faculty Member	Prof. Dr. Benny Moldovanu
Department	Department of Economics
Study Program	Title		Character	Study Term
	Master of Science Economics		Advanced Module	2nd
Learning Outcomes	The course aims at providing its participants with the methodological competence to understand and critically evaluate current research in mechanism design and contract theory. It thus complements other courses which cover similar ground from a more applied perspective.
Key Skills
Learning Content	This course presents a thorough treatment of mechanism design and contract theory by highlighting the common themes and methodologies that unite the field. The main topics covered are hidden information models, hidden action models and incomplete contracts.
Entry Requirements	Basic Module Microeconomics
Course Type	Lecture, Seminar, etc.		Contact time	Workload [h]
	lecture and tutorial		4 hrs per week	(c) 60 (s) 165
Examination(s)	Type of Examination		Grades
	written or oral exam		yes
Special Course Achievements
Other

(c) contact time per term / (s) self study per term

January 2012